

SHOOTING NEAR THE BULLOCK-PIKE LINE.

Troy Herald says: Louis Sellers, son of Hosea Sellers, of Post Oak, near the Pike county line, is painfully injured and a negro, Harris, in the Bullock county jail charged with shooting young Sellers. Harris was shot by the posse who pursued him. We are informed that Harris and another negro, Floyd Adams, got into an argument over a "skin" game. It seems that Adams won Harris' money and a dispute arose. Harris threatened to see Adams again and Thursday morning went to Sellers home where Adams worked and opened fire on the negro. Young Sellers appeared on the scene and warned Harris that he must leave the place and stop shooting around there, whereupon the negro opened fire with his repeating rifle and shot Mr. Sellers in the head, inflicting a bad wound, though it is not serious.

Young Sellers jumped behind a tree and called to his brother John, to bring him a gun. When John Sellers appeared on the scene Harris tried to shoot him but a cartridge jammed in his gun and he could not fire more. Seeing that his gun was not working he took the woods. A posse of twenty-five men were hurriedly called together and trailed the negro through the swamps for a distance of about eight miles. While the chase was in progress the Sheriff appeared and joined the posse. The negro was found hiding in a small swamp and it is said he fired on the crowd without hitting anyone. In the exchange of shots the negro was badly wounded by small shot from the gun of one of the posse men.

The negro after being wounded hurriedly surrendered to the sheriff and was carried to Union Springs and lodged in jail.

Louis Sellers, the wounded young man, is a nephew of W. R. Sellers of Troy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Haire, of Troy, were guests of Elba relatives Sunday.

We can save you money on your fall and winter goods if you will let us. We will appreciate a visit and will be glad to show you our lines whether you care to buy or not.

MAD DOG MANGLES ARMS OF WELDON; SCHOOL CHILDREN BITTEN.

Montgomery, Oct. 27.—J. W. Weldon, residing at Craigford, Ala., whose hands and arms were badly torn by the fangs of a mad dog, Wednesday morning, arrived at the state laboratory, Thursday for treatment with anti-rabies serum as a preventive against possible infection. Mr. Weldon told officials at the laboratory that he was walking along the road Wednesday morning, the dog sprang upon him and a struggle ensued between himself and the animal during which the man's arms and hands were severely mangled and torn by the brute's jaws as he fought the creature off to prevent it from sinking its teeth in his throat and face. Finally, about doing its attack as quickly as it was begun, the dog made off. Before Mr. Weldon could spread the alarm through the neighborhood, the same dog sprang upon him and a struggle ensued between himself and the animal during which the man's arms and hands were severely mangled and torn by the brute's jaws as he fought the creature off to prevent it from sinking its teeth in his throat and face. Finally, about doing its attack as quickly as it was begun, the dog made off.

The head of another dog which an examination proved was affected with hydrophobia, was also received at the laboratory Thursday from Dr. R. A. Martin of Pitt City. He did not state whether this dog had attacked any person.

FIREBUG SUSPECT IS HELD AFTER BIG BLAZE.

New York, Oct. 23.—Detectives seeking the pyromaniac believed responsible for the fire which swept an East Side tenement house early Sunday with a toll of 15 lives, late Monday, after they had been notified that a man who lived near the tenement had been arrested in the vicinity of a Bayonne church with a lighted candle in his hands.

The prisoner, who gave his name as Albert M. Molnar, was alleged by the Bayonne police to have confessed that he was a member of a gang of firebugs and drug addicts who had their headquarters in the basement of an East Side church and that Sunday night a fire was started at the command of their leader, known as "Big Nose" Ralph. The Bayonne police said he later had reneged this statement and said he knew nothing about the fire.

It is not necessary to buy a high-priced roadster to get maximum comfort. Comfort is a matter of correct design. Comfort is built into the Studebaker Light-Six.

The seat is placed at just the right angle for relaxation and is provided with big, fat cushions, upholstered in genuine leather. The semi-elliptic springs are long, strong and resilient.

There is ample luggage space under the rear deck—plenty of room for everything you may want to carry.

Vibration, which is so destructive to motor cars, is practically eliminated by the perfect balance of the motor. This is largely due to the fact that the crankshaft and connecting rods are machined on all surfaces, an exclusive Studebaker practice for cars at anywhere near the Light-Six price.

Economy of operation is increased by valves inclined at a 20-degree angle and by the internal hot spot.

This handsome roadster is a quality car throughout. It is a solid, reliable, complete car, in one of the most modern and complete motor car plants in the world.

Middlemen's profits are thus eliminated, and the savings are passed on to you.

The Light-Six Roadster well upholds Studebaker's 70-year reputation for dependability and dollar-for-dollar value.

Attractive coil lights. This car's transmission holds. Cool ventilator. Steam cylinder. Spark plug. Large pleated valve in rear cylinder. Hands and windshield. Upholstered in genuine leather. Ample space under the rear deck for luggage.

4922 Pupils Enrolled In Orphanage Building At Coffee's Rural Schools

The enrollment in the white schools of the County outside of the towns was 4922 the first month. The enrollment in the first month two years ago was 3430. This shows a gain of about 33 1-3 per cent. The reports from the beginning indicated a heavy enrollment in every school in the County. There is every indication to show that this will be the banner year for the schools of the County.

A total of 188 visits to schools was made by the superintendent and supervisor during the first month. These first visits proved very helpful in every way. In a great majority of the visits, the trustees and in some instances patrons were successful in saving most of the furnishings and fixtures in the building.

Thirty-nine boys from 10 to 12 years old, a matron, two teachers and two girls were in the building. They escaped unharmed. The citizens of Evergreen are caring for the boys not able to be taken care of at the orphanage.

Some are missing a great treat by not attending the mid-week prayer meetings.

The meetings now are that the entire building will be taxed to its utmost capacity next Sunday morning. Those who do not attend Sunday school had best come early in order to get a comfortable seat.

All are invited and a hearty welcome awaits all who come.

Judge Tankersley Dies At Laverne From Stroke

Laverne, Ala., Oct. 31.—Judge Felix M. T. Tankersley, one of the best known professional and political figures in Crenshaw county, died this morning at 5:10 o'clock, following a stroke of paralysis suffered earlier in the day. He was the son of a prominent family and was married Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, when the body will be laid away with Masonic honors.

Judge Tankersley was stricken while sitting on his front porch Tuesday morning and never regained consciousness. He was loved by friends and loved ones.

Judge Tankersley was born on a farm in the southern part of Montgomery county on June 1, 1862. He was the son of Felix M. T. and Martha Mosely Tankersley. He was educated in the public schools of the county, and in 1884 was graduated from the medical department of the University of Tennessee.

After graduating Judge Tankersley settled at Highland Home, Crenshaw county, and began the active practice of his profession. Later he did post graduate work at Tulane, where he graduated with distinction in 1894.

Mrs. Osvelt Dowling was a visitor at New Brockton and Geneva Saturday.

Circuit Court is in session at Enterprise this week. Quite a number of Elba attorneys are in attendance at the court.

Our "Home Coming Service" on last Sunday was a success in the fullest sense. We had a great time. Dr. Welch's sermon was given with a profusion of decorated with plenty and to spare. Hon. Sydney Blain's speech in the afternoon was an inspiration to all. The talk of Rev. T. G. Jones, of Opp, a former pastor, was well taken and appreciated. Then Dr. Welch made one of his usual great talks on what the Centenary is doing for the world. It was a great day.

I want to thank each and every one who helped to make our "Home Coming Service" the success it was, for it most assuredly was a success, and without the cooperation of the people it would not have been so.

We were all glad to see so many of our former days, day and served here, but are now living in other parts, shaking hands with old friends and neighbors and hear them talk of old times.

Just two weeks until the Annual Conference will meet in Montgomery, so let all the membership of the Church rally to the help of the Stewards. Let each one do his or her part so we may be able to make a good report. I don't believe the Elba people are willing for their Church to suffer embarrassment, and this will not be if each one does their part.

A splendid program in which each organization participated was rendered. The meeting was closed with an appropriate prayer by Mrs. W. C. Braswell.

A MAN WHO IS PROSPERING ON A FARM.

From the Centerville Press is taken this very interesting piece of information about a young man who is a credit to himself and to Bibb county.

Welford Kornegay, oldest son of Roach Kornegay, has proved himself one of the best farmers of Bibb county. This year he alone raised 300 bushels of fine corn and seven and one-half bales of cotton. Besides other crops, Welford made his corn on five acres of land, averaging 72 bushels per acre. If more boys in Alabama would follow the example of this young boy, the automobile shops of the North-western States would have to look to some other State for employees.

The opportunity is here. Other boys can do as well, if not better. They can be more independent than a wage-earner. They can make their future what they wish to—it simply depends upon the knowledge, enthusiasm, hard work and training they have. Alabama has agricultural high schools which will make of any boy a more efficient farmer than his father was, and therefore, a more prosperous one. If he wishes to go on and become a master of agriculture, he can get the rest of it at Auburn.

The greatest need of Alabama today is more Welford Kornegays, and more farm girls who are going the same type. The opportunity to the happiest, most independent and fullest life is held out to our farm young people, but it drives them by turning their backs upon it to go to cities and seek out existence, and often with no future. When will our rural people realize that they have the biggest chance of all—far more filled with opportunity than is presented to 999 out of every thousand who follow the false glamour, the false lights, the unsatisfying life in the cities? ## Plane Dives To Earth

Pilot Is Not Injured

Troy, Ala., Nov. 1.—A Cessna, piloted by the army land pilot, fell from the sky at 11 o'clock this morning. The pilot was uninjured, though the machine was badly damaged in taking a nose dive to the earth after passing under a telegraph wire near the A. G. S. R. R. crossing in the eastern part of the city.

The pilot left the scene immediately after the accident and has not been since located, though it is stated that he was flying over the city. It is thought that he had purchased the plane and was on his home-ward journey and while seeking a place to land in or near Tuscaloosa his machine took a sudden nose dive with the above results.

TOPACCO HABIT GETS UP

WARM DISCUSSION.

Decatur, Ala., Nov. 2.—Topacco and its use furnished one of the principal subjects of debate before the annual North Alabama conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South in session here today when the body was plunged into a discussion of the weed by the report of the committee on examination of ministerial candidates.

Dr. John S. Chadwick, secretary of the committee, reported to presiding Bishop Murrell that in line with the ruling of the general conference of 1910, the committee had taken spring, against the use of tobacco, the committee had exacted a promise from each of the 21 candidates that they would not use tobacco in any form.

This decision was criticized by Dr. Scott, one of the presiding elders, and brought forth sharp debate. Bishop Murrell cut the discussion short, explaining that while he used tobacco some himself, "opposition was on the increase in the country and it is sure to embarrass new members in the future, if they fail to abide by the church ruling against its use."

The conference then went into executive session where the applicants were voted upon.

White Farmers in Fight

One Found Dead; Three Are Placed in Pike Jail

Troy, Ala., Nov. 1.—Henry Wilkes, a young white farmer, about 35 years old, is in the county jail in Troy, held on a charge of killing Jim Stewart, a white farmer, about 30 years of age.

The killing occurred near the Backhorn creek bridge, in the northeastern section of the county on Tuesday evening, about an hour before sunset. The story goes that Wilkes and a young man named McLenon, during the scuffling and drawing of the road, picked up a piece of fence rail about a yard and a half long, and struck Stewart on the left side of the head near the top back of the skin and breaking the skull.

The Sheriff was notified and went to the scene of the killing. He said that Stewart's body lay apparently untouched, the dead fingers still clasping the lumps. A number of people were at the scene. The Sheriff then went to Wilkes' home and called him and the latter came out and got in the officers' car without protest, and was brought to jail. It is understood that he had intended surrendering.

The funeral of Stewart was set for Wednesday afternoon at Enon church. He leaves a wife and three children. Wilkes, who is in jail here, has a wife and five children, it is stated.

Troy, Ala., Nov. 3.—The killing of Jim Stewart, a young white farmer, about 30 years of age, in the vicinity of Backhorn creek bridge, in the northeastern part of Pike county, is now being viewed from another angle.

Sheriff Reeves has worked up new evidence in the case, all of which he is not divulging.

He has placed in jail, however, "Cully" McLenon and Isaac Harden, young white farmers, who were the other members of the party of four, when Wilkes is alleged to have killed Stewart.

Harden was arrested at the funeral of Stewart at Enon cemetery.

The Sheriff intimated that Stewart was not killed on the roadway where he was found but that he was killed at an illicit distillery and carried some distance to the roadway, where it was alleged that the fight occurred.

It is believed that some sensational evidence will come out when the preliminary hearing occurs.

Robbers Attempt Hold-Up Train; Two Are Dead

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 3.—Two of the three bandits who tried to hold up a Frisco train near Seveny-Six, Mo., killed and the third captured and brought to Memphis by the train crew, it was learned when the train reached Memphis today.

One of the dead men has been identified as Jack Kennedy, but the other remains unidentified.

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 3.—Two bandits are in custody and three are being held in jail here, following an attempt to hold up the St. Louis and Memphis special on the Frisco Railroad, near Cape Girardeau, Missouri.

One of the dead men is Jack Kennedy, an escaped convict. The plot to rob the train became known to the authorities a day or so ago, when agents overheard a conversation between two men in a hotel.

As two of the bandits climbed the side of the road, picked up the engine and ordered the engineer and fireman to throw up their hands, they were shot by the train crew.

Two confederates who were to have boarded the train, were arrested at their homes, where they were found asleep. The hold up succeeded and the loot would have amounted to a hundred thousand dollars.

The greatest builders in the world are those who build character. Men have built houses, roads and temples that have lasted for generations, empires that lasted for centuries, but those who build character fabricate something that will last to eternity.

Build into your character the foundation of industry, efficiency and economy. With these success is certain. Wholehearted industry brings out the best that is in us and drives out evil.

SWAPPED SHIPS AND RETURN HOME.

Samson Ledger says.

Walter Colly, 19, and Chas. J. Adams, 17, have returned to their homes near Samson after leaving for Cuba, swapping boats while several hundred miles out and getting back to the good old U. S. A. without reaching their destination.

They are said to have agreed that Geneva county, Alabama, was good enough for them.

Disgraced because his father would not allow him to hook up the jammed to the buggy and take a young lady riding Adams packed his duds, and shook off the dust of the paternal patch. He visited young Colly for a day or so, during which time Walter became acquainted with Walter.

Colored in Storm's Grasp.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 3.—Southern Colorado tonight was in the grip of the first severe storm of the 1922 season. It has taken two lives, resulted in the severance of transportation, wire communications, caused property damage amounting to many thousands of dollars and caused the loss of much livestock.

Two Are Killed.
F. P. Mossman and his 7 months old child were killed when their home near Carr's Crossing, fifteen miles north of Sugar City, was caught up by a cyclone and wrecked. Mrs. Mossman and their two and a half year old son suffered injury when their home was demolished, but it is believed they will recover.

In the storm that swept the vicinity of Sugar City, dozens of barns, and many hay stacks and ranch buildings were demolished.

O. C. Mulligan and Kelly Sells, living on the west side of the road between Sugar City and Rocky Ford were slightly injured in the gale and their farm buildings were destroyed. Further west the blacksmith shop of Henry Geringer was demolished but Geringer escaped with slight injuries.

GIRL ACCIDENTALLY KILLED BY FATHER.

Fort Payne, Ala., Nov. 3.—News was received here Thursday that Miss Nannie Shankles had been killed near Sylvania by her father, Henry Shankles, his gun firing accidentally when a door closed on it while he was placing it on a rack after shooting a hawk. The top of the girl's head was blown off. The father is reported prostrated.

Negro Pays Penalty For Death of Bagby In Terrible Storm Which Hits Oklahoma Oil Belt

Tulsa, Okla., Nov. 3.—Four bodies had been recovered at 9 o'clock tonight from the wreckage caused by a terrific cyclone which swept through the oil country in Creek and Lincoln counties shortly before 7 o'clock this evening.

Revised estimates of the total number of dead obtainable at that hour through meagre information drifting from the stricken area placed the total number of dead at twenty-five. Earlier reports had placed the number of killed at between 50 and 60.

Scores of persons are reported to have been injured in the storm and it is believed that other bodies yet unaccounted for will be discovered.

At Cushing, Okla., the Rockwell Oil Company's camp was blown away and four workers were killed. Local officials of the company said that twenty-five persons are killed at Shamrock, Oklahoma. Shamrock is 55 miles west of Tulsa.

Devastation of a large number of buildings at Mannford, Okla., 50 miles west of Tulsa, was reported by the telegraph operator at Keystone, six miles from Mannford. No lives were lost at Mannford although there were a number of instances of narrow escapes from death and injury.

Over to the scope and intensity of the storm which has disabled nearly all lines of communication it was almost impossible to obtain details of the destruction at an early hour tonight.

Property damage tonight was estimated at more than $3,000,000. Oil derricks and riggings are scattered over an area of ten miles and more than fifty houses are completely wrecked as a result of the storm. At least 20 persons were injured, some of them probably fatally.

The storm, which came up from the south swept across the open Oklahoma fields and tore into the oil field section where its greatest havoc resulted into.

Four bodies recovered were those of the entire Jennings family who lived on the Prairie Oil and Gas Company lease, two miles from Drumright.

Pardon For Theo Lacy Recommended by Board

Theo Lacy, defaulting former chief clerk of the state convict department, was recommended for parole Tuesday of last week by a majority vote of the Alabama State Pardons board. Those voting for recommendation were State Auditor Fitzhugh Lee and Secretary of State William F. Cobb. The dissenting vote was cast by Attorney General Harwell G. Davis.

The disappearance of Lacy and of thousands of dollars of the state's money; the subsequent search for him by officers throughout the length and breadth of the country; and the return of Lacy months later to Montgomery, where he voluntarily gave himself up to the authorities, created one of the most profound sensations in criminal annals of the state. None of the missing state funds were ever recovered. Lacy was tried, convicted of embezzlement in two cases, and on April 6, 1915, was sentenced to terms in the penitentiary for ten years and six years, respectively. For many months the board of pardons has been engaged in studying the record in the case, which includes a statement by Lacy himself regarding all details as related by him of the offenses for which he was convicted and sentenced and as to his whereabouts during his absence from Montgomery. The record also includes hundreds of letters from all sections of the state in support of Lacy's application for clemency, and a relatively small number opposing it.

In announcing its decision, the board devotes its attention to a discussion of the so-called "Frank case," what is generally known as the "main case," being alluded to only by way of reference. It was held by the majority that had Lacy prosecuted in one case only and given the extreme sentence of ten years, he would, by reason of his exceptionally good conduct in prison have been set free more than a year ago.

Remember you can get J. & P. Coats spool thread 150 yards to spool at 5 cents per spool at Vaughn & Kendrick.

New Record Is Set By Alabama Jersey

Among Jersey cattle in Alabama there is a new champion. It is Pannonia of Friendship, owned by King Pharr, of Coalinga. Her record is 19,657 lbs. of milk containing 709.63 pounds of butterfat produced in one year. She was placed on official test at the age of five years and five months under the direction of the Agricultural College at Auburn.

In addition to her championship record Pannonia of Friendship is the only gold medal cow in Alabama having qualified for the American Jersey Cattle Club gold medal list, which requires a production of at least 700 pounds of butterfat in one year.

Previous to this new record the Alabama Jersey championship was held by Spennfield Dorothy, also owned by King Pharr, with a record of 12,928 pounds of milk containing 625.56 pounds of butterfat.

By producing 709.63 pounds of butterfat in one year Pannonia of Friendship averaged nearly two pounds of butterfat and over two pounds of butter each day.

FARMER IS SHOT BY HIS NEIGHBOR

Fort Payne, Ala., Nov. 6.—Clinton Bearden, of near Henagar, in this county, lies seriously injured in the Wills Valley Hospital here while authorities have in custody John Jenkins, another farmer of that vicinity.

According to Jenkins' statement, he shot Bearden late Saturday at a distance of about 100 yards from their home. The latter is said to have threatened to kill the entire Jenkins family when he met the older Jenkins at a distance of about 100 yards from their home. Bearden is said to have been drinking.

Bearden was shot with a shot gun, according to Jenkins' statement, as he was advancing in a threatening manner. The load entered the lungs of Bearden. Jenkins gave himself up to authorities.

ENGINEER IS STRUCK BY MAIL CRANE, SKULL IS FRACTURED

Allison, Ala., Nov. 6.—Engineer Spencer Frawley, of A. G. S. Train No. 43, the Pan-American, sustained a fractured skull here late Monday when he was struck by a mail crane while leaning out of his cab. Reports state that one of the brake rods on the engine was in bad shape and Frawley was trying to see this at the time. The train, behind time, was traveling at a high speed. The fireman, who was firing the engine at the time, turned just in time to see Frawley fall. He caught him, and brought the engine to a stop. Later he ran the engine into Boligee where a physician was immediately summoned.

The physician stated that recovery was extremely doubtful. Frawley was placed in a mail car and after an engineer had been procured from a switch engine, the injured man was rushed to a Meridian hospital.

Frawley lives in Birmingham and is well known in that city, having resided there for a number of years. Frawley's brother is an engineer of the same train from Chattanooga to Birmingham.

It is a coincidence that about 10 years ago Frawley's engine turned over near the same spot where his injury took place Monday. Frawley losing his foot as a result.

Official Returns From General Election, Nov. 7.

The general election in Coffee on Tuesday, November 7th, was a very quiet one throughout the entire county. Although all state Democratic officers had Republican opponents, only a small number of republican votes were cast in the county. For the state officers the total republican vote in the county ranged from twenty-two to thirty. In the place for Congressman, Mr. Carlos E. Roberts, well known Coffee county citizen, who was opposing Henry B. Stegall, received a total of ninety-one votes in the county, forty-five of these having been cast in Mr. Roberts' home voting precinct.

The voting was very light throughout the county, only 1145 votes having been polled for the leading candidates. The Clipper gives below the result of the election, giving the total vote of the county. We do not think it sufficient interest to tabulate the result, as only a small number of republican votes were cast.

We are also giving below the result on the two amendments that were voted on at the election. Amendment No. 1, which is known as the Mobile Port Amendment was carried in the county by a majority of 187 votes. The other amendment received a majority of only 57 votes. Following is the complete returns:

Three Small Children Kill Big Rattlesnake

Florida News says: According to a story of three small children, the oldest one only eight years of age, it doesn't require grown-ups to kill rattlesnakes. The story is that three of Mr. Jim Kelly's little children did the work. Mr. Kelly lives about 7 miles southwest of Andalusia on the Simmons Bridge road. The children, according to the story, were going through the field and found the snake which was 9 inches in circumference and 5 feet 1 inch long, and had six rattles, laying by a log. Perhaps not realizing what a dangerous serpent they were confronting, the oldest one of the children took out his slingshot and shot at the snake, striking him on the nose. Then they threw a lighted knot at him which, added to the wound of the slingshot, added the snake. The children then procured a forked stick, looped a string around the snake's neck, and finished the job.
